

CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, MATHEMATICS

Cape Breton University (CBU) is located on Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia's tourism centrepiece and home to rich Celtic, Mi'kmaq, and Acadian culture. CBU has a reputation for small class sizes, strong community involvement, and generous internal support for faculty research. More information about the university and the mathematics department can be found on our website at <http://www.cbu.ca>.

CBU invites applications for a nine-month limited term appointment in Mathematics at the rank of Assistant Professor commencing August 1, 2009, subject to budgetary approval. The union affiliation of this position is with the Cape Breton University Faculty Association.

Candidates should have a Ph.D. in Mathematics, with preference being given to those with research and teaching experience in such areas as real analysis, complex analysis and set theory. The teaching load may include some service courses (including introductory statistics and calculus).

Applicants are expected to engage in course updating and development, and to demonstrate potential and commitment with regard to undergraduate teaching, research/creative/scholarly activities and service to Cape Breton University, community and profession.

Qualified candidates should send a letter of application quoting the reference number (MATH0904), with an up-to-date curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, a sample publication and three current letters of reference (sent directly to CBU) to the Human Resources Department. Review of applications will commence May 25, 2009. The position will remain open until it is filled. Email applicants will receive a return email confirming receipt.

Cape Breton University is an equal opportunities/affirmative action employer. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Cape Breton University encourages applications from qualified Aboriginal People, African Canadians or other persons from a visible minority group, persons with disabilities and women. Applicants who wish to be considered for this initiative should self-identify in their cover letter.

We share the air! CBU promotes a smoke and scent-free workplace.
