

The Mathematics Department at the University of British Columbia is seeking outstanding candidates for at least one position, subject to funding, at the tenure-track Assistant Professor level, with a starting date of July 1, 2011. Exceptional candidates at the Associate Professor or Full Professor level may be considered. Postdoctoral experience is normally expected and a PhD is required. Priority research areas are Partial Differential Equations and Probability. More detail on hiring priorities will be posted by September 1, 2010 at <http://www.math.ubc.ca/Dept/Jobs/priorities>. In any event, exceptional candidates in any area of mathematics may be considered. Joint positions with other departments may also be possible.

The successful applicant is expected to work in an area of interest to current faculty, to interact with related groups in the Department and to have demonstrated interest and ability in teaching. The salary will be commensurate with experience and research record.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to apply on-line; submissions can be made at MathJobs.Org

Alternatively, applicants may send a current CV including a list of publications, statement of research and teaching interests, a teaching dossier or similar record of teaching experience, and should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent directly to:

Chair, Departmental Committee on Appointments
Department of Mathematics, #121-1984 Mathematics Road
University of British Columbia
Vancouver, B.C., Canada, V6T 1Z2

In order to ensure full consideration, applications should be received by November 15, 2010.

The Department has strong connections with other mathematical institutes, such as the Pacific Institute for the Mathematical Sciences (PIMS), Mathematics of Information Technology and Complex Systems (MITACS), Banff International Research Station (BIRS), and the UBC Institute of Applied Mathematics (IAM). For more information see <http://www.math.ubc.ca>.

The University of British Columbia hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. We strongly encourage candidates from under-represented groups to apply, including women, visible minorities, people of aboriginal origin, and people with disabilities.
