Posting	2015.103
Position	Faculty: Assistant Professor, Mathematics and Statistics
Department	Mathematics and Statistics
Status	Faculty tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor, 100% full-time
Start Date	August 1, 2016
Review Date	October 26, 2015

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning August 1, 2016, subject to budgetary approval. Interested individuals who currently hold a rank higher than Assistant are also encouraged to apply, as the Dean may take into account their current position and experience.

The University of the Fraser Valley is nationally recognized for its commitment to teaching excellence, community relevance, and Indigenization. With over 100 programs, from graduate and undergraduate arts, science, and professional degrees, to trades and technical education, UFV is the school of choice for over 15,000 students.

We are seeking collegial, energetic and innovative individuals who have an outstanding ability to teach at the undergraduate level and communicate effectively with students both in and out of the classroom, and are able to instruct across a broad range of the undergraduate mathematics curriculum. The ideal candidate will be able to develop new and innovative programs and courses, and/or apply technology in the delivery of our programs and courses. Moreover, the ideal candidate will integrate his/her research/scholarly activity into teaching. In addition, we are seeking individuals who have a strong commitment to service within the department, the university at large and the community.

We are primarily a teaching-oriented university and department but the successful candidate will also be expected to maintain a program of scholarly activity or research, preferably one which involves students, or is community-linked.

The successful candidate must have a PhD in Mathematics (or one near completion) from a recognized/accredited post-secondary institution, demonstrate excellence in teaching at the undergraduate level, and demonstrate potential in scholarly activity or research. The university is focusing on growing the areas of agriculture, health sciences/environmental studies and digital media communications. Applicants from any area will be considered, but preference will be given to those whose expertise supports any of these areas.

How to Apply

Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae; evidence of teaching excellence (student evaluations if available); one-page statement of teaching philosophy including (if available) examples of innovative approaches to teaching and course design; one-page statement of proposed research program or scholarly activity, and names and contact information for three referees. Applications, citing Posting 2015.103, should be sent to:
