

Field of Specialization:	Statistics
Academic Unit:	Mathematics and Statistics
Category of Appointment:	Preliminary (Confirmation-track)
Rank/Position Title:	Instructor I
Start Date:	July 1, 2019
Closing Date:	November 16, 2018

About the Position:

The School of Mathematics and Statistics invites applications from qualified candidates for a Preliminary appointment in statistics at the rank of Instructor beginning July 1, 2019.

The candidate will be expected to teach a variety of undergraduate courses in the area of statistics. The ability to teach introductory actuarial science, linear algebra or calculus courses will be regarded as an asset.

About the Academic Unit:

Information about the School may be found at www.math.carleton.ca.

Qualifications:

A Ph.D. in statistics is preferred. Candidates who have statistical experience along with either a M.Sc. in statistics or a Ph.D. in a related field may be considered. Candidates must have demonstrated an aptitude for teaching courses at the undergraduate level.

Application Instructions:

Applications must be sent electronically in one single PDF file to kevin.crosby@carleton.ca. The application should include a curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy, and evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g. student evaluations or testimonials). Applicants should also arrange to have three letters of reference sent to the above address by November 16, 2018.

Please indicate in your application if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.

About Carleton University:

Carleton University is a dynamic and innovative research and teaching institution with a national and international reputation as a leader in collaborative teaching and learning, research and governance. With over 29,000 students, 950 academic faculty, and 2,000 staff and more than 100 programs of study, we encourage creative risk-taking enabling minds to connect, discover and generate transformative knowledge. We are proud to be one of the most accessible campuses in North America. Carleton's Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities has been heralded as the gold standard for disability support services in Canada.

Located in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada's capital city has a population of almost one million and reflects the country's bilingual and multicultural character. Carleton's location in the nation's capital provides many opportunities for scholarship and research with groups and institutions that reflect the diversity of the country. To learn more about our university and the City of Ottawa, please visit www.carleton.ca/provost.

Carleton University is committed to fostering diversity within its community as a source of excellence, cultural enrichment, and social strength. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our university including, but not limited to: women; visible minorities; First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples; persons with disabilities; and persons of any sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression. Carleton understands that career paths vary. Legitimate career interruptions will in no way prejudice the assessment process and their impact will be taken into careful consideration.

Applicants selected for an interview are asked to contact the Chair as soon as possible to discuss any accommodation requirements. Arrangements will be made in a timely manner.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. All positions are subject to budgetary approval.