Inspiring and enabling individuals to succeed in life through career and university studies

Instructor – Mathematics and Statistics

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics in the Faculty of Arts and Science at Grant MacEwan College invites applications for a continuing position in Mathematics or Statistics commencing July 1, 2009. This position will contribute to the growth and success of MacEwan's four-year Bachelor of Science degree. The candidate must have a PhD (or solid indication of imminent completion) in Mathematics or Statistics, and must demonstrate excellence or clear promise of excellence in teaching. A commitment to research is expected. Applicants from all areas are welcome to apply but particular attention will be given to those with a specialization in Algebra or any field in Statistics. Applicants should have strong written and oral communication skills in English.

Applicants should submit: a covering letter with curriculum vitae; a teaching statement and student evaluations; a statement of research interests and evidence of scholarly activity; and graduate transcripts. Candidates should also arrange for three letters of reference to be sent under separate cover. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

All correspondence should be sent to Human Resources Department, Grant MacEwan College, 10700-104 Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, T5J 4S2. The deadline for receipt of applications is January 5, 2009. Inquiries may be directed to the chair of Mathematics and Statistics, Dr. David McLaughlin at mclaughlind@macewan.ca.

Salary: Commensurate with education and experience

Closing Date: Monday, January 5, 2009
