

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Limited-Term Faculty Positions
Assistant Professor Level
Department of Mathematics

The department invites applications for three Limited Term Faculty (LTF) positions in Mathematics at the Assistant Professor level to commence on August 1, 2012. One of the positions will be a two-year position, while the others will be one-year. The positions will carry teaching and course coordination responsibilities. Candidates should have a Ph.D. in Mathematics or Statistics and teaching experience at the undergraduate level.

A curriculum vitae, a brief letter describing past teaching experience and teaching philosophy, and the names and contact information of three references should be sent in an electronic format by e-mail to mathjob@ryerson.ca

Please visit <http://www.math.ryerson.ca/> to obtain more information about our Department. Review of applications will commence by March 19, 2012, and will continue until the positions are filled. The position will be subject to budgetary approval. We thank you in advance for your application, however, only the short-listed candidates may be contacted.

Ryerson University is strongly committed to fostering diversity within our community. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our faculty and its scholarship including, but not limited to, women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, but applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority
