

University of Toronto
Department of Mathematics
Assistant Professor - Teaching Stream

The Department of Mathematics in the Faculty of Arts and Science at the University of Toronto invites applications for a full-time continuing teaching stream position. The appointment will be at the rank of Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream with an anticipated start date of July 1, 2021.

Applicants must have earned a PhD degree in mathematics or a related area by the time of appointment, or shortly thereafter, with a demonstrated record of excellence in teaching and teaching-related scholarly activities, intellectual curiosity to pursue novel and innovative methods of thinking and teaching mathematics, and commitment to pedagogical enquiry and teaching innovation. In addition, applicants must demonstrate that they have the administrative, organizational, and mentoring skills to coordinate large courses.

Responsibilities include undergraduate teaching, coordination, mentoring of new instructors and teaching assistants, course and curriculum design, professional and pedagogical development, and service to the department.

We seek candidates whose teaching interests complement and enhance our existing departmental strengths <https://www.math.toronto.edu/cms/people/>. Candidates must have teaching expertise in a degree granting program at the undergraduate level, including lecture preparation and delivery, curriculum development, and development of online material/lectures. Additionally, candidates must possess a demonstrated commitment to excellent pedagogical practices.

Evidence of excellence in teaching and teaching related scholarly activities will be provided through teaching accomplishments, awards and accolades, presentations at significant conferences, the teaching dossier including a teaching statement, sample course materials, and teaching evaluations submitted as part of the application, as well as 3-5 strong letters of reference from referees of high standing.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application material for the position must be submitted online through MathJobs, <https://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/jobs/16402>. It must include a cover letter summarizing the important aspects of your application, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier which includes a teaching statement, sample course materials, and course evaluations, the AMS Standard Cover Sheet, and at least 3 letters of reference uploaded to MathJobs directly by the writers. At least one letter must primarily address the candidate's teaching.

For enquiries, please contact Lidya Farag, Senior Administrative Coordinator, at lidya.farag@utoronto.ca

All application materials including reference letters, must be received by November 30, 2020.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Diversity Statement

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from racialized persons / persons of colour, women, Indigenous / Aboriginal People of North America, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ persons, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

Accessibility Statement

The University strives to be an equitable and inclusive community, and proactively seeks to increase diversity among its community members. Our values regarding equity and diversity are linked with our unwavering commitment to excellence in the pursuit of our academic mission. The University is committed to the principles of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). As such, we strive to make our recruitment, assessment and selection processes as accessible as possible and provide accommodations as required for applicants with disabilities. If you require any accommodations at any point during the application and hiring process, please contact uoft.careers@utoronto.ca